Current News and Announcements

Thanks to Sarah Junkin Woodard for her message from the Center for Development in Central America (CDCA) in Nicaragua.

We have an upcoming Labyrinth walk at NACCP: May 3rd at 1 pm – “Walk as One at One” World Labyrinth Day

Peanut Butter Whiskey at NACCP! Mark your calendars. On Saturday May 17th, we will host Laurie’s band, Peanut Butter Whiskey (PBW), at NACCP! Her band will be on our stage from 5:00 to 7:00 that day and those who attend will have hamburgers and hot dogs to enjoy while they listen. This event is free! Come join us for a memorable evening of music "in the woods at NACCP!" Bring your friends and a chair!

For several weeks, a small group of NACCPers have gathered on Tuesdays to do Grounds Keeping in our woods. Beginning on April 25th, this Friday, we will work on Fridays. Cynthia will arrive early (maybe as early as 7:30) and will welcome anyone who wants to join at any time thereafter. Several types of work are available including weed pulling, mulch carrying and vine winding. She hopes you will consider joining us!

Campus Edge Concerts at Saint Andrew Catholic Church presents Carolina Bronze on Thursday, May 1 at 7:30. The one-hour, family-friendly program is free. Carolina Bronze, the Upstate’s premiere bell-ringing ensemble, has been performing regionally for 25 years. They last appeared at Saint Andrew’s in December of 2023, offering a Christmas music program to an enthusiastic audience. Many of the musicians are active in other church, community and professional groups. Carolina Bronze performs on five octaves of cast bronze handbells as well as seven octaves of choir chimes. Don’t miss it!
